

I am opposed to the preposed change of the ownership rule allowing the further consolidation of broadcast stations by media conglomerates. I feel this has the very real potential to restrict what I am allowed to view and hear over the airwaves.